Dear Sir;

RECOMMENDATION LETTER FOR MSc SEXUAL AND REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH : ADEOYE, RUTH ADENIKE

I have known Adeoye Ruth Adenike for over 4 years. I met her at Value Reorientation for Community Enhancement (VARCE), Osun State, Nigeria during her internship at the organization organized by Department of Community Medicine, Osun State University, Osogbo. She volunteered with us and contributed immensely to the success of various projects done in the organization. Thereafter, she volunteered with the State Ministry of Health, Catholic Relief Services Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist, and National Program on Immunization, where she participated in every immunization session at the local government level. In 2017, I recommended her for a training and a position of support staff and data officer with Planned Parenthood Federation of Nigeria (PPFN) on Reproductive and Family Health (RFH) and Family Planning (FP) projects funded by International Planned Parenthood Federation (IPPF) for young people and women of reproductive age. These projects involved Sexual and Reproductive Health, Series of advocacy on youth related issues, health talk, cervical cancer screening and treatment, acquisition training and Empowerment amongst others.

Giving back to her community, she had a 2-day program that impacted over 700 students of her institution on Non-communicable diseases at her final year supported by Department of Community Medicine, Osun State University, Osogbo, Osun State.

As a program officer, she worked well as a team leader and as well as an efficient team member having handled a full range of responsibility. She is dependable, able to work independently and also with colleagues. She has excellent communication skills and demonstrated adequate intellectual capacity in the course of her duty. She is creative and resourceful.

In addition to having first-hand knowledge of Adenike's work ethics and abilities, I am also familiar with her education and career goals. She has consistently shown genuine interest in Development work.

I am confident that you will be just as impressed with Adenike as I am, and I urge you to consider her for the volunteer position she requested. She is highly recommended.
